

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to allow their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of COURAGE! While "Fahrenheit 9/11" is considered to be perfectly OK with the liberal imbeciles, anything which purports to uncover the truth about John Kerry MUST, according to those same liberal imbeciles, be stopped at all costs!

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, which it will do very well by presenting "Stolen Valor". Thank God this is still a free country! Those who wish to see this film will be able to through the courageous action of Sinclair, and those who choose not to see it can just turn it off! It's just too bad that this expose' will not be available to all Americans as was Michael Moore's so-called "Documentary".

The correct thinking people of this great nation did not try to censor Michael Moore's film, even though it is full of lies and half-truths, so why are the liberals so afraid of "Stolen Valor"? Could it be because they know that revealing the truth of what John Kerry did to our brave men and women of the military might hurt his image? I think so.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to allow all media outlets to publish or print whatever they see fit, without resorting to censorship. Thank you.
